The Co.LLab™
Building Leadership Infrastructure™

INTERNAL · FOR THE SALES TEAM

Sales Pitch Guideline

What to say, in what order, and what never to say. Built on The IV Phases™ and the Omnidirectional Enterprise™.

01 · THE PITCH

One idea. Four phases.

You sell one idea: a company's vision should outlast the people who started it.

Every company starts with a vision. Most lose it. The Co.LLab™ is the infrastructure that defines, builds and passes it on, licensed as IP.

Our mission: turn human potential into performance, sustainable enterprise value, and lasting legacy.

THE 30-SECOND VERSION, OUT LOUD

> Most leaders build something real and then depend on themselves to hold it together. The Co.LLab™ turns what you know into leadership infrastructure, in four phases. It is licensed IP you keep, built so the work continues without you.

THE FOUR PHASES: DEFINE IT. PLAN IT. LIVE IT. PASS IT ON.

PHASE I

Define it

Foundations

What should never be lost as we grow?

PHASE II

Plan it

Infrastructure Planning & Management

What depends on a person that should belong to the organization?

PHASE III

Live it

Internal Operating Systems

How do we make what matters part of how we operate?

PHASE IV

Pass it on

Preservation

What must exist for what we built to continue?

CLOSE EVERY CONVERSATION THE SAME WAY: LET'S BUILD YOUR LEGACY THROUGH OMNIDIRECTIONAL ENTERPRISE™.

02 · WHO YOU SELL TO Start with what they fear.

The lead buyer is an owner or leader with real capital who fears two things: the business losing its direction without them, and not being remembered for what they built.

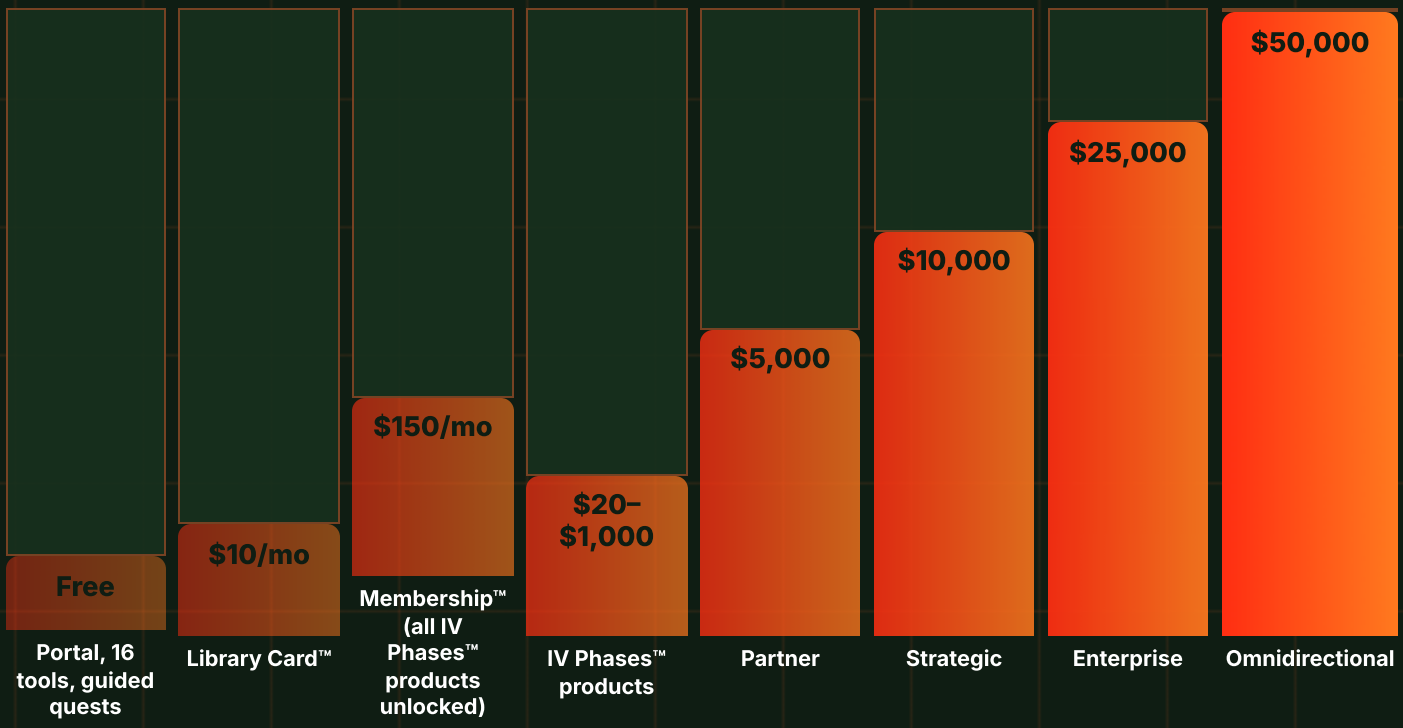

BUYER	LEAD WITH	BEST-FIT OFFER
Owner leading on their own Holding the vision alone	"Define your legacy."	Partnership: Partner
Leadership team One shared way of leading	"Plan your legacy."	Partnership: Strategic
Whole company Consistent practice every day	"Live your legacy."	Partnership: Enterprise
Company beyond its founder Continuity and succession	"Preserve your legacy."	Partnership: Omnidirectional
Leader not ready to commit Wants to see it first	The free tools and portal	Free, then Library Card or Membership
Needs one framework now A specific problem	The phase that matches it	One IV Phases™ product
Creator or creative venture Make a practice last	Their own work, kept theirs	Creator™ line
Wants to work with other companies Find and serve each other	Collaborating Companies	Any paid license or Membership

Read the buyer in two minutes. Ask who else the company depends on. "It all runs through me" is a Partnership conversation. "I just want to see what this is" gets the free tools, with no pressure.

03 · THE OFFERS

A ladder from free to lifetime.

Every Partnership already includes the .LLab™, so the free door leads straight to the paid one. Quote prices exactly as the site shows them.

PARTNERSHIPS: ONE PAYMENT, NO SUBSCRIPTION, NO AUTOMATIC CHARGES

PARTNER
$5,000
Define your legacy.
Entry into the ecosystem for owners leading on their own.
1 year · 1 seat

STRATEGIC
$10,000
Plan your legacy.
For leadership teams.
2 years · 3 seats

ENTERPRISE
$25,000
Live your legacy.
For the whole company.
3 years · 5 seats

OMNIDIRECTIONAL
$50,000
Preserve your legacy.
For companies building beyond their founder.
Lifetime · 10 seats

Every Partnership includes: all nine IV Phases™ products licensed to keep, one partner-only framework for that level, and Membership, Library Card and Journal for the term.

Keep these apart. Founders Organization™ is its own offer. It is not a membership and not part of a Partnership. Never pitch the two together; send buyers who ask to its page. The Creator™ line runs $20 to $750; the Journal is $150/yr.

04 · THE CONVERSATION

Six steps, in this order.

It follows the model we sell: The IV Phases™ for what to build, the Omnidirectional Enterprise™ for who it connects to.

Open with the vision, then the action

"Every company starts with a vision. Most lose it." Give the way out in the same breath: four phases, one licensed system.

Ask before you tell

Spend the first third of the call on discovery. Let the buyer say what depends on them.

Place their answer in a phase

"That is a Foundations question." Show the model working on their own business.

Widen the frame

Value moves in every direction between companies, people, creators and communities. Who outside could carry, fund, use or buy from the work?

Offer one next step

Not the whole ladder. Unsure: a free tool or a guided quest. Clear need: the one offer that matches their size.

Close with one action

One payment link, one date for the next conversation, and the same closing line every time.

USE THESE WORDS

infrastructure · legacy · license · phase · continue · we

NEVER USE

~~deal~~ · ~~hack~~ · ~~crush~~ · ~~limited spots~~ · ~~last chance~~

How to speak. Sound like an executive talking to another executive about stewardship, not like a promotion. Short, calm sentences. "We" before "you."

05 · DISCOVERY

Ask two or three, not all.

Each phase has a guiding question from the model. Use it to choose what to ask next.

PHASE I Foundations	What should never be lost as we grow? Ask: "What is the company here to do, in one sentence? What would you never trade away?"
PHASE II Planning & Management	What depends on a person that should belong to the organization? Ask: "Which decisions only you can make? Who decides when you are not in the room?"
PHASE III Internal Operating Systems	How do we make what matters part of how we operate? Ask: "What happens every week whether or not you are watching? Where does it slip under pressure?"
PHASE IV Preservation	What must exist for what we built to continue? Ask: "If you stepped away for a year, what would continue? Who is ready to carry it?"
THE MODEL Omnidirectional Enterprise™	Who beyond our own walls could carry, use or be strengthened by this work? Ask: "Which companies, people, creators or communities depend on you, or could work with you?"

Listen for the opening. "It all depends on me" tells you which phase to start in and which offer fits. Write their words down and use them again in the follow-up, in their language, not ours.

06 · OBJECTIONS (1 OF 2)

Answer calmly, in their terms.

Stay inside what the site already says. If you do not know, say so and take it to the owner.

"It is a lot of money."

It is one payment, licensed to keep, with no subscription. The $5,000 level is the entry point of a $50,000 range and includes all nine IV Phases™ products. To start smaller, one product starts at $20.

"Can you do better on price?"

"Pricing is set. Any exception is the owner's decision, and I will ask for you." Never offer or invent a discount code.

"I need to think about it."

"Of course. Which phase felt most true? Try the free tool for it, and we will pick up on a date we agree now." No countdowns, no "last chance."

"Do you have case studies or testimonials?"

"We do not publish testimonials, and we will not make any up. We would rather show the method on your own business: try a free tool or a guided quest."

"We already have consultants and systems."

"Good. This builds on what already works. The model starts from your strengths and makes them structural, so they continue without any one person."

06 · OBJECTIONS (2 OF 2)

Keep every answer on the site.

"Is it a subscription?"

"A Partnership is one payment with no automatic charges. The Library Card and Membership are monthly or yearly plans, and you can see both on the site."

"What exactly do we own?"

"You receive a license to use the IP, not ownership of it. Creators keep ownership of their own work; The Co.LLab™ builds the infrastructure around it."

"What if we are not happy?"

"All sales are final once access is unlocked, which is why we offer free tools and quests first, so you can see the method before you commit."

"What results will we get?"

"It is a license for internal business use. Results depend on how each business applies it." Never state a number or an outcome.

"Is this the same as Founders?"

"No. Founders Organization™ is a separate offer and not a membership. I can point you to its page."

If you do not know, say so and take it to the owner.

07 · RULES

Ten rules you never break.

They protect the buyer, the brand and the owner. A pitch that breaks one is a lost sale, whatever it closes.

1. Approved copy only
   If a claim is not on the site, do not make it.
2. Prices come from the site
   Quote list prices as shown. Payment only through the official link.
3. No invented proof
   No made-up testimonials, rankings, earnings, countdowns or “limited spots.”
4. No promised results
   Say: results depend on how each business applies it.
5. Keep the offers distinct
   Founders is not a membership. Never pitch it with a Partnership.
6. Discounts belong to the owner
   You do not offer, create or hint at one.
7. No legal or tax advice
   Say: licenses are commonly purchased as a business expense. Ask your tax professional.
8. Say what is in development
   Technology ventures, including .LLab Sound™, are in development.
9. Respect member privacy
   Never share what a member answered in a quest or report.
10. Mark the names
    Use ™ on Co.LLab™ names and keep the capitals as the site writes them.

Real proof only,
and only when it exists.

08 · AFTER THE CALL

Close, hand off, follow up.

Closing. Say back what you heard in their own words, name the one offer that fits, and send its payment link. Then tell them what happens next: an email with their access link, then sign in to the Member Portal, where their products unlock. Ask for the next conversation date before you hang up.

FOLLOW-UP

Day 0 — Same day
A short recap in their words, the one link that fits, and the date you agreed.

Day 3 — One useful tool
A free tool or quest for the phase they named. No sales language.

Day 7 — Brief check-in
"Where did you land on what depends on you?"

Day 14 — Door open
One last note. After three unanswered messages, stop.

KEEP A SIMPLE RECORD OF EVERY CONVERSATION

- [ ] Name and company
- [ ] The phase they live in, and their exact words
- [ ] The offer discussed and the objection raised
- [ ] The next step, with its date

Tell the owner the same day about any Partnership conversation, any request outside the standard offers, any custom term, and any question you could not answer from the site. Send the objections you hear every week: they feed the IP review, which is how the IP gets better.

09 · QUICK REFERENCE

Say this. Never that.

SAY

- Leadership infrastructure
- Licensed to keep
- Define it. Plan it. Live it. Pass it on.
- Results depend on how each business applies it.
- What should never be lost as we grow?
- Let's Build Your Legacy Through Omnidirectional Enterprise™.

NEVER SAY

- ~~A program, a course~~
- ~~You will own it~~
- ~~Limited spots~~
- ~~Last chance~~
- ~~Any promised result, number or earnings~~
- ~~What is your biggest pain point?~~
- ~~A different tagline~~
