THE LEADERSHIP INFRASTRUCTURE BLUEPRINT™

The Co.LLab: Building Leadership Infrastructure™

Turn existing strengths into organizational infrastructure.

The Leadership Infrastructure Blueprint™ helps organizations take the strengths identified through the Diagnostic and determine how those strengths can be strengthened, connected, and built into sustainable organizational practices.

It follows the same IV Phases™, but instead of asking "What's wrong?", it asks:

"What is already working—and how can we build it into something stronger?"

PHASE I — FOUNDATIONS

Strengthen what gives the organization direction.

Use your existing strengths in:

- Mission
- Vision
- Values

- Leadership identity
- Purpose
- Strategic clarity

Build From Strength

Our current strength:
What are we already doing well?

How can we strengthen it?
What would make this strength more consistent?

How can we embed it?
Where should this strength show up across the organization?

How can we scale it?
What would allow this strength to support future growth?

Foundation Build

PHASE II — INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING & MANAGEMENT

Strengthen how leadership turns direction into action.

Build from existing strengths in:

- Strategic planning
- Decision-making
- Accountability
- Management
- Roles
- Resource alignment

Build From Strength

What planning or management practice is already working?

What makes it effective?

Where could it be strengthened?

How could it become a repeatable organizational practice?

PHASE III — INTERNAL OPERATING SYSTEMS

Strengthen how leadership becomes everyday performance.

Build from existing strengths in:

- Culture
- Communication
- Collaboration
- Leadership behaviors
- Execution
- Performance
- Feedback

Build From Strength

What part of our culture or operations is already working?

What behaviors make it successful?

How can we reinforce those behaviors?

How can we make the practice consistent across the organization?

Operating System Build

Strength to develop:

PHASE IV — PRESERVATION

Strengthen what should continue beyond the current leadership team.

Build from existing strengths in:

- Organizational knowledge
- Culture
- Leadership development
- Continuity
- Institutional memory
- Legacy

Build From Strength

What do we already have that must be preserved?

Why does it matter?

How can we document or transfer it?

How can we ensure it continues as the organization evolves?

Legacy Build

Strength to preserve:

THE CO.LLAB™ BUILD MAP

At the end, the organization creates:

1. Strength

What already works.

2. Development

How that strength can become stronger.

3. Infrastructure

What system, practice, or framework will support it.

4. Continuity

How it continues as the organization grows.

5. Legacy

What remains because it was intentionally built.

THE FINAL PROMPT

What are you building that should outlast you?

Identify one leadership strength you want to transform into lasting organizational infrastructure.

THE CO.LLAB PROMISE

The Co.LLab doesn’t begin by replacing what organizations already have.

We identify the strengths already present, strengthen them, and build the infrastructure necessary for those strengths to become repeatable, scalable, and lasting.

Build the infrastructure. Strengthen the organization. Create the legacy.
